Q:

Hi Anna.

Hoping you can clarify situation regarding deposit monies.

You stated on Antonio update thread deposits were thought to be in separate account but Antonio was seeking confirmation.

You then stated on the key ready thread at a later date the monies were in a separate account.

Can i assume you have had confirmation through Antonio as this obviously makes for good news if it has been confirmed.

Looking forward to your reply.

Regards Ken.

A:

Yes Antonio confirmed that the owners (ie buyers for Herrada del Tollo only - you will need to make this clear when you post on eye on Spain) have their money in a separate bank account. There is 36,000 Euros missing (thought to have been spent on construction and this is the element which is being further clarified / confirmed. I expect an update from Antonio today which I will post)

For info. I don't mind posting but clients of Antonios can and will make direct contact with him and those that have chosen lawyers via other groups would be better placed to take advice from their own counsel as to not do so and rely on others would be unwise.

How a claim gets handled by a particular lawyer through this process will not necessarily apply across the board at all and will only apply to those he/she represents. Owners therefore need to make sure they are pushing their own lawyer for independent information and questioning next steps etc.

hence my comments about quality not price!

Hope this helps ken
